ARGENTINA

The Argentinian Football Association was founded in 1893 and became part of the International Federation in 1912. It has its head office in the Calle de Viamonte in Buenos Aires the capital of Argentina.

The first teams to be founded were Alumni and Sportivo Barracas and these were followed by the famous teams of the 1930s Boca, River, Gimnasia y Esgrima, Racing Independiente. The most popular at the present time being River Plate, Talleres, Boca Juniors, Racing, San Lorenzo and Independiente. Argentina are the present holders of the World Cup having won it in the 1978 championship.

BELGIUM

The Football Federation of Belgium was founded in 1895 and was a founding member of F.I.F.A. It had a close association with Great Britain in its early years.

Perhaps its greatest time being in 1920 when it won the Olympic football title. In recent years the team has not done so well.

BRAZIL

La Confederação Brasileira dos Desportos controls football in Brazil and became a member of the International Federation in 1923. Brazil's national team is unique in that it is the only one to reach the finals in all the World Cup championships since 1930. They have won the World Cup three times and are owners of the Jules Rimet Cup.

SPAIN

Spain was one of the seven founder countries of F.I.F.A. in 1904 although the Spanish Football Federation was not founded until 1904.

Internationally Spain was an Olympic finalist in 1920 and won the European Cup in 1964. Spain has taken part in five World Cup semi-finals reaching fourth place in 1950.

Perhaps the best known clubs over the years have been F.C. Barcelona, Athletic Club de Bilbao, Real Madrid, Real Unión de Leon, Arenas Club de Guecho and Real Sociedad de San Sebastián.
